Milton Mouse, although he pulls the plow for Thomas Cat, is left to thirst when refreshments are served. He buys a toy cat and is expelling his venom on the fake feline when Tom arrives. Milt, naturally runs away and into the house.

In the house, Graham Goldfish invites Milt to cool off by taking a ride around the bowl. Milt cools off, says, "Thanks" and goes out. Outside, Tom grabs him, sticks a pipe into his mouth and little Milt has to puff and puff until he is puffed out.

The wicked cat, then rushes into the house, snatches Gwendolyn, Graham's mate, and makes off to the saw-mill with her. There he ties her to a log and sets the buzz saw buzzing.

Milt comes to. Hearing the cries of help, he speeds to the saw-mill. He arrives in the nick of time, shoots the terrible Tom, pulls the lever and saves the little goldfish from the teeth of the whirling buzz saw.

Milt carefully carries Gwendolyn to Graham who is overjoyed at the reunion.
